

Prophetic Training Center Philosophy

The philosophy of the ECM Prophetic Training Center is to provide educational and life-enriching experiences to our students by instilling the core values of holiness, character and integrity coupled with the drive towards superior leadership, commitment, excellence, dedication and perseverance both in service within the church and the global marketplace.

Further, we believe that all students are created with unique and extraordinary gifts and abilities. Therefore, given the right academic environment students will be able to grow both spiritually and naturally to become professionals in their respective prophetic classification and field. The overall goal is for students to become recognized as credible prophetic professionals who can become employable in any given profession due to the supernatural edge afforded to them throughout the ECM Prophetic Training Center. Daniel 6:3

Course Statement

The purpose of the Prophetic Training Center is to introduce students to the prophetic spheres as it relates to operating in spiritual giftings, the prophet's mantle or as a 5-fold ministry gifts or marketplace leader. Currently, the training center consists of two schools: The 5-fold Ministry School and The School of Gifts Boot Camp (for children and youth).

The aim of the Prophetic Training Center is to help men, women and children discover their purpose, calling and destiny while empowering them to serve and grow in the Kingdom of God.

Prophetic Training Center Vision

The vision of the ECM Prophetic Training Center is to train, equip and produce spiritually mature, biblically sound Christian leaders who will transform their nations, their cultures and the global marketplace.

Prophetic Training Center Mission

The overall mission of the ECM Prophetic Training Center is to produce spiritual, faithful, informed, intelligent and articulate ambassadors who dominate and operate powerfully in their ministry gifts and the prophetic realms in which they have been called to rule.

ECM is a comprehensive learning institution committed to developing the complete ministerial potential of every student. A strong biblical prophetic structure underpins the curriculum which seeks to challenge preconceptions and misconceptions relating to the spiritual and supernatural spheres and the functionality of the Ephesians 4:11 officers and the Romans 12 gifts. Our academic rigor not only produces superior spiritual knowledge but it fosters character development as well.
